NOTES

Definition of Operational Period: The term "operational period" refers to the time interval during which the system is expected to perform its intended function. It is defined by the start and end times of the system's operation, taking into account the system's readiness, the availability of resources, and the specific mission requirements. The operational period is a critical factor in determining the system's overall performance and reliability.

- (a) the period between a declaration of war
- (b) any period spent in a theatre of operations
- (c) any period when engaged in any form of

The Ministry of Defence headquarters concerned where the conditions of the unit's employment will be clearly stated. Notwithstanding the above, the time submitting these reports will start, in accordance with paragraphs 15 and 16, if the unit was employed in the time not accounted for by the above.

it was employed in the time not accounted for. The type of ness and to save work as much information as possible will ments issued and received, routine returns, etc. All annexes time of receipt or despatch will be given.

The narrative will be prepared and submitted to the OIC in duplicate. One copy of the narrative will be retained in the OIC's files and the other copy will be forwarded to the OIC's parent record office.

During Non-Operational Periods

13. Formation Headquarters will forward the original Commanders' Diaries annually as at 31st December to reach the Army Records Centre (through Headquarters Field Records where applicable) as soon as possible after 1st January of the following year. The duplicate will be retained in formation headquarters.

14. Units will NOT render a Commanders' Diary

During Operational Periods

15. ORIGINAL COMMANDERS' DIARIES

- (a) Formations and units in the UK will forward diaries monthly by the seventh day of the succeeding month direct to the Ministry of Defence (ARC for reports other than medical, AMD 1 for medical reports).
- (b) Formations and units overseas will forward diaries monthly by the seventh day of the succeeding month to the OIC Field Records for onward transmission to the Ministry of Defence.

16. DUPLICATE COMMANDERS' DIARIES. These will be clearly marked as duplicates and will NOT be sent with the originals. They will be forwarded within two months as follows:—

- (a) Units in the UK
To the OIC parent record office.
- (b) Formation Headquarters in the UK
To OIC Central Clearing Wing, Infantry Records, Exeter.
- (c) Units Overseas
To the OIC Field Records for onward transmission to parent record office.
- (d) Formation Headquarters Overseas
To the OIC Field Records for onward transmission to the OIC Central Clearing Wing, Infantry Records, Exeter.

17. Documents concerned with future operational planning will be listed on AF C2118 and placed in a separate AF C2119. All details will be filled in and the cover will be clearly marked in red:—ANNEX Z—
OFFICERS' ONLY. It may be convenient to group the papers by annexes.

18. Supplementary diaries will be forwarded in accordance with the normal rules for TOP SECRET correspondence to the Ministry of Defence (ARC). The inner envelope will be clearly marked:—

TOP SECRET
ANNEX Z118

Commanders' Diary of (formation or unit)

From to (Dates)

19. The duplicate supplementary diaries will be despatched as in paragraph 16 as soon as receipt of the originals has been acknowledged.

NOTES

Definition of Operational Period. The term "Operational Period" for the purpose of this instruction, means:—

- (a) the period between a declaration of war and the official end of hostilities
- (b) any period spent in a theatre of operations
- (c) any period when engaged in any form of military operation.

The Ministry of Defence or headquarters concerned will be responsible for instructing units to submit Commanders' Diaries where the conditions of the unit's employment make this necessary. Wherever possible the beginning and end of the period will be clearly stated. Notwithstanding the above, on the outbreak of global war all units and formations which are not at the time submitting these reports will start compiling them with effect from M day and will thereafter render them in accordance with paragraphs 15 and 16.
